Citing Print Sources: CSE Style

The Council of Science Editors (CSE) Style has a number of citing options: footnotes, endnotes, in-text citations, and a bibliography. Ask your instructor if they prefer footnotes, endnotes or in-text citations.

Books with one author

Author’s Last name, First initial. Year of publication. Title. City of Publication, State: Publisher; Page number.

Books with two or more authors

First author's last name and first initial, Second author’s last name and first initial. Year of publication. Title. City of Publication: Publisher. Page number.

Book with an editor and no author

First author's last name and First initial, Second author's name (last name first initial), third author's name. Year of publication. Title. Edition. City of publication: Publisher. Page number.

Chapter within a book

Chapter author’s last name and first, second author’s name. Year of publication. Title of chapter. In: Book editor’s last name first initial, second editor’s last name and first initial, editors. Book title. Edition. City of publication: Publisher. Chapter page numbers.

Article in a scholarly journal

Author’s last name and first initial, second author’s name. Year. Article title. Journal title. Volume (issue): article page numbers.

Article in a daily newspaper

Article author. Year Month Day. Article Title. Newspaper Title. Section:page (column number).

Article in a magazine

Citing Electronic Sources: CSE Style Guide

Article from a database (Ex. Today’s Science)

Database title [method accessed]. Issue title. [date of publication; date of citation]. Available from: URL.

Website

Website title [Internet]. City of publication (state): Publisher: [citation year month day]. Available from: website.

A work on the Web Cited with Print Publication Data (Use this for books and other non-periodical works that also appeared in print. For example books Google books or Books found in databases.)

Author last name and initials. Copyright date. Title of book [Internet]. Edition. City of publication(State): Publisher.; [citation Year Month Day]. Available from: website.